

SUB- VERSIVE CLAY

2012 Australian Ceramics Triennale

28 September – 1 October 2012

University of South Australia, City West campus, Adelaide

Craftsouth and the Australian Ceramics Triennale steering committee are proud to present SUBVERSIVE CLAY – exploring clay as a medium capable of challenging artistic, social and cultural issues through the investigation of past traditions and the exploration of new discoveries and directions.

This exciting programme brings together leading national and international ceramic practitioners, educators, collectors, critics and cultural theorists to celebrate and share the diversity of CLAY.

Keynote presenters

Anton Reijnders (NL) Clare Twomey (UK) Akio Takamori (USA) Penny Byrne (AUS)

Akio Takamori, Alice in Black Dress [detail], 2009; Alice in White Dress, 2009, stoneware with underglazes

Supporters

Craftsouth Centre of Contemporary Craft and Design is the major partner of Subversive Clay, 2012 Australian Ceramics Triennale

Funding Partners

Program Partners

Art, Architecture and Design

tafeSA
Adelaide College of the Arts

Sponsors

